(a) Development Fees and Releases Between Seasons

i) The player release is automatically granted upon receipt of the maximum dollar figure paid by the new organization to the previous organization's Member Partner.

ii) Teams can negotiate lower development fees only. A release is automatically granted upon receipt of the negotiated Development Fee with signed approval by the previous organization to its Member Partner.

iii) The Member Partner that receives the Development Fees will disburse to the association/club of the last carded team or split between associations/clubs at the discretion of the Member Partners through their policies.

iv) A player 18 years of age as of December 31st of the current season is released to Junior hockey with no development fees unless there is a competitive Juvenile program in the Minor Hockey Association/Club for him to play.

v) A player under 18 years of age as of December 31st of the current season who played AAA hockey outside his home centre is subject to the development fee schedule.

vi) The Development Fee for a player in his last year of Midget eligibility moving from Minor to Junior in their home community is $100.

KEY IMPLICATIONS

- The fees chart in E103 are the established development fees, they are no longer guidelines.
- Releases are automatic if the fee is paid except for between teams in the same category.
- Permission to Skate is obtained from the players last carded team.

NOTE: For Teams within the NOHA it is strongly recommended that you deal with each other (team to team) and then forward appropriate documents to the NOHA Office.
