Re: Media Relations

Some of you may be aware of a recently televised news report in which a minor hockey referee was interviewed after a game on a subject that is currently before the Ontario Human Rights Commission.

The following is a timely reminder:

When representing the OHF, an OHF Member Partner or member thereof, all referees are required to uphold the OHF Code of Conduct (see attached).

In the event a referee is approached by any member of the media to make comments or respond to questions (be it formal or informal), the following is advised:

As our referees are independent arbiters and must always be recognized publicly as such, the referees should simply (and politely) decline the opportunity and redirect the media agent to the Branch or Member Partner office.

The following is an example of what may be said:

"As I hope you can appreciate, my job is to referee hockey games. Beyond that, if you are looking for personal opinions or the official position of _____ on any particular subject or issues, it would be best if you contacted _____. I hope you understand."

As a Federation, we of course understand that any individual has the right to hold personal opinions on any number of subjects. That said when acting on behalf of the OHF it is critically important not to say anything or act in a manner which could be perceived as contrary to our Code of Conduct or any other policy, so please bear the above in mind.

For a list of contacts, please see attached.

Kind regards.
