

Players, coaches, officials, even parents need to understand each other's roles and responsibilities. That means taking time to read booklets like Hockey Canada's Risk Management guide called Safety for All/Safety Requires Teamwork and NOHA's Speak-out Information on Harassment and Abuse. These and many others are available from your local hockey association and NOHA or go online at www.noha.on.ca. Shared respect... let's turn our attention to prevention!

Open, read and learn.
