1) How were you introduced to the sport: By my father when I was four years old.

2) Who has had the greatest influence on you as a player, and why:

My father because he believes in me, encourages me to do my best and gives me advice to improve my game.

3) What are your greatest strengths as a player: My dedication to the game, the team and the organization. I play every game with passion and determination.

4) How would you describe yourself as a player: Very strong, physical player. Hard worker who will always get done whatever is asked of me.

5) What is your greatest achievement as a hockey player: Being asked to try out for prestigious teams such as Little Caesars, Dynasty Hockey,

West Coast Selects and now the NOHA U16 Team.

6) Your favourite hockey player: Jean Beliveau and Mike Richards.

7) Which professional player do you model your game after: Mike Richards because he is a strong power forward, a good team player and a leader. He is very hard on the puck and aggressive when he is battling low in the corners.
