Re: NOHA Under 16 Team

---

The Northern Ontario Hockey Association (NOHA) is pleased to announce that it has selected the team that will represent the NOHA at the Ontario Under 16 Tournament taking place on August 12-15, 2010 in Kitchener.

The tournament format will feature teams representing each of the following organizations: GTHL, OMHA, NOHA, ODMHA, HNO and ALLIANCE Hockey. The tournament is being held to provide the Team Ontario Coaching Staff with an opportunity to identify the potential players that will make up Team Ontario. This team will represent Ontario and compete for a gold medal at the 2011 Canada Winter Games being held in Halifax, Nova Scotia beginning February 2011.

Off the ice, the team will be overseen by Robert Allen. Robert brings more than 25 years of experience as the Camp Coordinator for the NOHA Under 17 Camp and former Director of Operations for Team Ontario.

The 20 NOHA players will gather in Walden at the TM Davies Arena on Tuesday, August 10 and Wednesday, August 11 to prepare for the Tournament. The team will take part in three practices and several team building activities prior to departing for Kitchener on Thursday, August 12. The NOHA team will play six games during the weekend, competing in a round robin format against each Member Club.
